

VIRGINIA:

In the Supreme Court of Virginia held at the Supreme Court Building in the City of Richmond on Tuesday the 13th day of October, 2009.

Douglas Robert Johnson, Appellant,

against Record No. 091703
S.C.C. Case No. CLK-2009-00014

State Corporation Commission, et al., Appellees.

From the State Corporation Commission

Upon the petition of Douglas Robert Johnson, an appeal is awarded him from an order entered by the State Corporation Commission; upon the appellant, or someone for him, filing an appeal bond with sufficient security or an irrevocable letter of credit in the clerk's office of the State Corporation Commission in the penalty of $500, within 15 days from the date of the Certificate of Appeal, with condition as the law directs.

On further consideration whereof, appellant's request for suspension of the effectiveness of the order appealed from is denied. The parties shall address in their briefs and at oral argument the question raised by the motions to dismiss as to the appealability of the order of the Commission from which the appeal was taken.

Reference is made to the said petition for the names of all appellees involved in this appeal.

A Copy,
